Proceedings of the Hot Springs Meeting

At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries at Hot Springs, Arkansas, in April 1923, and at various times prior to that meeting, the wish was expressed that the proceedings and papers of the conference be issued in one number of the journal. The Committee on the Index and Journal decided to include them in this July number.

Repeated efforts to obtain the copy have been unsuccessful, and it is felt unwise to delay further the publication of the July number of the Index portion.
